Induction Report: Non – Teaching Staff

New Horizon College of Engineering

Bengaluru

13 April 2024

Introduction

A day's induction was organised to orient and support our new employees (non – teaching and technical staff) as they embark on their journey with the New Horizon Educational Institutions. A wide range of topics were covered that provided valuable insights into our institutional history, affiliation and accreditation, HR policies, interpersonal skills, time management and office etiquette. The program also focused on acquainting them with administrative procedures and resources available for them to facilitate their association with the institutions.

About the institution

New Horizon College of Engineering is an Autonomous college affiliated to Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU), approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) & University Grants Commission (UGC). It is accredited by NAAC with 'A' grade & National Board of Accreditation (NBA). New Horizon College of Engineering is located in the heart of the IT capital of India, Bangalore. The college campus is situated in the IT corridor of Bangalore surrounded by MNCs and IT giants such as Intel, Accenture, Capgemini, ARM, Symphony, Wipro, Nokia, JP Morgan and Cisco to name a few. NHCE has a scenic and serene campus that provides an environment which is conducive for personal and intellectual growth. The infrastructure and the state – of – art facilities act as facilitators for the effective delivery of the curriculum.

Executive Summary

- This report has been prepared to provide the management with insights and updates on the one day induction program for the new employees, held in the NHCE campus on Saturday, 13 April, 2024.
- The training was primarily coordinated by Dr. Sowmya Narayanan (Director CLSSD) and Mr. Pratik (HR Trainer) in association with Ms. Manjula (Executive Director HR), Ms. Sulochana (HR Administrator) and Ms. Suneetha (Asst. Professor CLSSD).
- The induction encompassed the aforementioned conducting informative sessions based on the following topics:
 - ✓ Welcome and Introduction
 - ✓ Interpersonal Skills
 - ✓ Office etiquette (telephone and email)
 - ✓ Personality Development and grooming
 - ✓ Feedback

Objectives

- To ensure the new inductees are aware of the SOPs, functioning model, growth opportunities and allied provisions at the college.
- To align the new employees with the history, vision and mission of the organization.
- To provide a holistic view of the principles and protocols that NHCE stands on.
- To enable the faculty to be able to deal with the customary challenges that they might face at work.

Methodology

The topics for the induction were delegated to the speakers on the basis of their expertise and the departments that they handle. The first session was initiated and conducted by Ms. Sulochana and the duration of the session was of 40 minutes. Later, Mr. Suneetha conducted two sessions of 1 hour duration each. The sessions were interspersed with active learning and anecdotes. The training content was well structured with presentations, FAQs, mutual interaction and personal reflection. Ultimately, the employees were inducted to promote and uphold a culture of respect and support within the institute. This was the second round of induction for the new employees to orient them to the New Horizon College fraternity.
